

Wyoming Public Schools Board of Education Candidate Profile

Questions:

- 1. Please provide a brief bio about yourself. Include your personal background along with particular skills or experiences that qualify you to serve on the WPS Board of Education.

My name is Lisa Manley. I have been married for 34 years and have two kids who graduated from Wyoming public schools.

I have worked/volunteered in the district for 27 years with the last 14 years as a board member.

- 2. What motivated you to run for the WPS Board of Education, and what do you hope to contribute as a Board member?

My passion for working with a team who wants to continue moving our district in a positive direction.

I will bring to the table my willingness to listen and learn, my past experience and the continued knowledge of we can always do better.

- 3. What do you believe are the most important priorities facing Wyoming Public Schools over the next six years, and why?

Student enrollment, Safety and education. Things are often changing so we need to revisit where we are at and move forward, always wanting better, to ensure success for all our kids.

- 4. How would you approach your role as a Board of Education member in supporting students, staff, families, and the broader Wyoming community?

I would continue where I left off, a strong advocate for our kids and helping to ensure a strong pathway for their success.

Meeting kids where they are at and making them feel seen, heard and accepted.

I come in knowing that serving on the board is an honor with great responsibilities. I am part of a team, a team that can only enhance our community by ensuring a pathway to success in their school years and beyond.
