School Safety & Security
Briefing – Joe Steffes:

On Thursday evening, Joe Steffes, WPS Coordinator of School Safety and Security, provided the Board with an update and overview of District safety and security plans. Steffes worked alongside district staff and local first responders to create an Emergency Operation Plan (EOP), the use of standardized language during events, ALICE training, Stop The Bleed training, and a comprehensive reunification training. The use of standard language during an emergency, will reduce confusion and ensure that staff, students, and families receive clear and consistent information. The work done to date, will ensure that in the event of an emergency, there will be a clear, organized process for communication and reunification.
